Marion County Voter Registration Information

As of August 21, 2020, at 10:42am the counts for registered voters in Marion County, as defined by IC 3-7-26.3-2, are expressed below:

(A) The total number of voters within the County:	651,589
(B) The number of active voters within the County:	559,585
(C) The number of inactive voters within the County:	92,004

In compliance with IC 3-11-18.1-13, any registered voter in Marion County will be able to cast their ballot at any of the vote centers in Marion County, representing the 600 precincts in the county. Each precinct board, regardless of size will be able to administer the election for any precinct, and all ballot styles for voters in Marion County.

Vote Center Locations, Configuration, and Management

On January 24, 2018, the Marion County Election Board adopted Resolution 01-18, officially calling for the creation of an election administration planning committee (EPAC) to transition the county toward vote centers, and away from the current precinct model. Exhibit A is a copy of that order, and outlines the steps that the Election Board expects to execute in the implementation of the vote center plan.

Resolution 01-18, also called on the Election Board to establish no more than 300 vote centers to be operational for the 2019 Municipal Election. At the time of the resolution's adoption the Marion County Election Board intended to use 286 polling locations.

- In the 2019 Primary Election, the number of polling locations was 277.
- The amendment, for the 2019 Municipal Election established 273 polling locations.

- For the June 2, 2020 Primary Election, Marion County utilized 22 polling locations pursuant to Indiana Election Commission Order 2020-40, Section 8.
- For the November 3, 2020 General Election, Marion County will have 188 polling locations.

A list of the buildings, and their physical address can be found as Exhibit B at the end of this plan. Exhibit C is a map, representing the geographical location of the sites in Marion County.

Exhibit D depicts a copy of the anticipated floor plan for each vote center location.

Vote Center Equipment and Pollworkers

All vote centers, with information on each registered voter in Marion County, will be linked using electronic pollbooks (e-pollbooks). At least one e-pollbook will be provided to each location. More devices will be provided at certain locations depending on the anticipated number of voters for that vote center. The e-pollbooks will be connected to a central database, that all e-pollbooks can access using a secured wireless internet connection.

Marion County will deploy ExpressVote touchscreen ballot marking devices to each vote center. At a minimum, there will be two (2) of these machines at each vote center location. The Election Board will provide more machines to vote centers based on expected turnout at each site.

Each vote center will have only one Inspector, to manage and administer the location. For each of the vote centers, the Election Board will request that each major political party appoint at least one pollworker to that location. If a political party does not make an appointment for a vote center location, the Election Board will appoint pollworkers.

In vote centers where a low-turnout of voters is expected, the Inspector will serve as the leader of the vote center. Inspectors will ensure that the vote center opens and closes on time, addresses vote-challenges, controls the accounting of ballots, and assists the other pollworkers in their assigned duties. Locations where turnout is expected to be relatively high will have more pollworkers to assist in processing voters. These pollworkers, (or Clerks) will be responsible for greeting each voter, checking for a valid I.D., will operate the Poll Pad, assist voters at the ExpressVote, aid voters with disabilities, and assist the Inspector in their duties.

Regardless of the vote center size and staff level, the voting process will be the same in each vote center. Voters will present their I.D. to the pollworker, the voter will be identified using the poll pad and sign their name. If changes to a voter's profile are necessary, a Clerk will document the information in the e-pollbook as required by state law. Clerks will initial a blank ExpressVote ballot card in the space designated, after a voter has been successfully entered in the e-pollbook. Once a voter has been processed on a Poll Pad, the ExpressVote Printer will automatically print the voter's ballot style on a blank ballot card. Then the pollworker will hand the ballot card to the voter who will be directed toward an ExpressVote to begin voting. The voter will insert the ballot card into the ExpressVote and make their selections by touching the screen. When finished, the voter will hit "print" and receive their completed ballot card. They will review their selections and insert the ballot card into the DS200 to tabulate and securely store the ballot until polls close.

Election Security and Accessibility

Access to the polls and election integrity are priorities to the Marion County Election Board. Each vote center location complies with accessibility requirements that are detailed in IC 3-11-8, ensuring that voters who want to cast a ballot in person on Election Day can efficiently and effortlessly vote.

Marion County adheres to security requirements established by the State of Indiana, found in IC 3-11-15-46.

The Marion County Election Board also has a hotline where pollworkers can report issues at each location so they are adequately addressed by trained staff. If vote centers experience disruptions on Election Day, contingency plans are in place to warrant the smoothest possible election still occurs. Each e-pollbook, ExpressVote touch screen, and DS200 are equipped with back-up batteries to ensure that the election is uninterrupted.

In the event of internet connectivity disruptions, the e-pollbooks store the processed voters, and will transmit the information to the ePulse network once internet is reestablished.

Information for each voter is housed in the ePulse program, which can be accessed by each e-pollbook as well as by the staff in the Marion County Election Board. Once a voter has cast a ballot, the ePulse information is updated to reflect this change.

The following hardware, firmware and software will be used to manage electronic poll lists:

Item	Use	Type
4 th generation iPad	Access information for e-pollbook	Hardware
Star Micronics Bluetooth label maker	Print label for ballot secrecy envelope at early voting	Hardware
